Mother of Ronald Carlan, Booked on "Suspicion of Murder", Says She Found Baby Dead

Police Chief Charles Finn said tonight that he booked the mother of -month-old Ronald Carlan on a charge of "suspicion of murder."

Police Lieutenant John Kirby said that Mrs. James Carlan would be arraigned on the charge in Chelsea district court tomorrow.

Chief Finn announced the booking several hours after the body of the baby, sought for sixteen days as a kidnap victim, was found beneath a bureau in his parents' home and after police said the mother had told them that Ronald died November 24 while she was attending a party upstairs.

Mrs. Carlan had been questioned evening prior to Chief Finn's

The police chief said after a telephone conversation that Medical Examiner William J. Brickley had told him he had not determined the cause of death and that he would make an autopsy report tomorrow.

foot malls, the new thruway will indeed be a wonderful thing.

The particular routing was chosen for the very good reason that eighty per cent of the total population of the state resides along this narrow strip of territory, which will run from New York city up the Hudson to Albany and west along the Mohawk valley to Utica, Syracuse, Rochester and Buffalo. Another good reason is that the present highways along the route are entirely inadequate.

It is always an interesting and absorbing adventure.

Each one of our individual lives is a contest—a contest against ourself. The resumption of controls over housing and the channeling of products for residential building rather than construction of commercial establishments is a significant symptom. It may mean that the era of irresponsibility and of every group doing as it pleases is ending.

In many essential products neededled for housing, as, for instance, heating and plumbing supplies, there are bottlenecks in production and soaring prices for the small amount of goods available.

The facts of this development are: In 1941 the Ford company, after a long record of stiff opposition to unions, signed a contract with the company should not engage in lockouts, and that it or its supervisors should not provoke strikes. In Memoriam

You had a smile for every one, A heart as pure as gold. To all who knew and loved you. Your memory will never grow old. Although your soul is now at rest, And free from care and pain. This world would seem like heaven, If we had you back again.

Sadiy missed by HIS WIFE, RUTH SARVER 12-15-11-N7

In memory of Pfc. Charles "Lue" Fleegle who died in Germany, one year ago, December 15th, 1944.

You left us son, your way to go, How proud of you were we. In far off lands, God called you Home While fighting for liberty. The vacant thoughts caused lots of pair In God we pray to meet again.

In Memoriam

Your memory is as dear today As in the hour you passed away. To have, to hold and then to part, Is the greatest sorrow of our hearts.

Although your soul is now at rest, And free from care and pain. This world would seem like heaven, If we had you back again.

Sadiy missed by HIS WIPE, RUTH SARVER

In "emory of Pfc. Charles "Luc" Fleegle ho died in Germany, one year ago, De mber 15th, 1944.

You left us son, your way to go, How proud of you were we. In far off lands, God called you Home While fighting for liberty. The vacant thoughts caused lots of pain. In God we pray to meet again.
